Copenhagen, November 26. N. S.

YEsterday in the Afternoon the King set out from hence towards Holstein. Messieurs Weebe and Holst, two Members of the Privy Council, followed his Majesty this Morning, and the Muscovite Ambassador intends to do the same to Morrow. Count Reventlau is sent to King Augustus with a Commission relating to the present Situation of the Affairs of the Northern Allies, this Court having entertained great Jealousies at the Conferences between General Fleming and Count Steinbock. Our Army is order'd to march into Mecklenburg, to attack the Swedes if it be practicable; and the Fleet is to put to Sea again to hinder them from transporting any more Forces.

Lisbon, November 30. N. S. We have received Advice, that a Mail which came from the Count de Tarouca at Utrecht, and had a Passport to go through Spain, was taken by three Horsemen at Pegoens, between this Place and Estremos. Don Pedro Mascarenhas being informed of this, hath sent out several Parties to endeavour to recover the Letters. Two Sally Cruisers have taken a small English Vessel on the Coast of Algarve, but the Men all saved themselves on Shore.

Berlin, December 3. N. S. On the 27th past in the Evening the Czar arrived here from Dresden, and lay at his own Ministers House, though he was very much press'd by his Majesty to lodge in the Palace: However, he was several times Entertained by the King and the Prince Royal while he stay'd, and two Days ago he set out towards his Army in Mecklenburg. Before he left this Place he gave a private Audience of Leave to Mr. Whitworth, Her Majesty's Envoy-Extraordinary, who went this Morning towards Holland. Yesterday the Prince of Anhalt was declared Field-Marshal, notwithstanding which Count Wartensleben is to continue still in that Character, his Majesty being resolved to follow the Example of the Electors his Predecessors, who have had several Officers of that Rank at the same time. On the 28th a Saxon Gentleman arrived here Express from King Augustus, with an Account that General Fleming and Count Steinbock have agreed to a Suspension of Arms for three Months; of which News we every Day expect the Confirmation and Particulars.

Utrecht, Dec. 9. N. S. Baron Grote, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Hanover to Her Majesty, arrived here Yesterday, and this Morning he set out for the Hague, from whence he intends to proceed in a Day or two towards Great Britain. Baron Kirchmer is come hither from Vienna, being appointed by the Emperor, to be his Third Plenipotentiary, in the room of Monsieur Consbruck, lately deceas'd. On Monday the Ministers of the Allies met in the Town-house, as usual, and afterwards Count Mellernich, one of the Plenipotentiaries of Prussia, together with some of those of the States General, had a Conference with the Lord Privy Seal, at his own House. On the 7th another was held there between the Ministers of the Protestant Allies. The same Day advice was brought, that his Excellency the Earl of Strafford, accompany'd by the Earl of Orrery, arrived the Night before at the Hague, whereupon the Marquis de Bourg, Minister of the Duke of Savoy, went immediately to that Place. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel, General of the Dutch Cavalry, came hither a few Days ago, and to Morrow he intends to set out, in order to return home. The Plenipotentiaries of Portugal are preparing a splendid Entertainment to celebrate the Birth of the Prince of Brazil.

Whereas by the Treaties between Her Majesty and the Crowns of Sweden and Denmark, it is Provided, That in Time of War between those two Crowns, the Ships of Her Majesty's Subjects Trading to the Baltick Sea, or the Places on the Coasts of Sweden or Denmark should, pursuant to the Treaty with Sweden, be furnished with Passports from the Chief Magistrates of the Towns from whence the Ships are bound, and pursuant to the Treaty with Denmark, that such Ships should have Certificates from the said Magistrates, and also Passes Signed by Her Majesty, the Forms of which Passes and Certificates are prescribed by the said Treaties, and have been communicated to the Chief Magistrates of several Towns and Places in Her Majesty's Dominions, from whence a Trade is usually carry'd on to the Northern Seas. And Her Majesty being informed that several of Her Subjects Trading to those Parts, neglect to provide themselves with the Passes and Certificates required by the aforesaid Treaties, whereby great Inconveniencies have arisen; These are therefore to give Notice to all Persons Trading to the Seas and Coasts abovementioned, that they do take Care to furnish themselves with the proper Passes and Certificates for the better Security of their Navigation.

Whereas by an Inquisition taken the 17th Day of November last, upon View of the dead Body of James Duke of Hamilton and Brandon, it was found that George Maccartney, Esq. was aiding and assisting the Lord Mohun to commit the Murder on the said Duke, and that the said Maccartney is fled for the same. And whereas it hath since appeared upon Oath, that the Wound whereof the said Duke dy'd, was given him by the said Maccartney. And Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to issue out Her Royal Proclamation for apprehending the said Maccartney, promising a Reward of Five hundred Pounds to such Person as shall apprehend him. Her Grace the Dutchess of Hamilton and Brandon, doth hereby promise, That whosoever shall discover the said George Maccartney, commonly called Lieutenant General Maccartney, so that he be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall receive from Her Grace a Reward of Three hundred Pounds (over and above what is promised by Her Majesty) to be paid by Sir Richard Hoare, Goldsmith, in Fleet-street.
